From the Pastor's Desk: Time to Roll the Windows Down

Have you ever had that moment when a song you haven't heard in eons, but love intensely, comes on the radio? All you can do is roll down the windows and crank up the sound, letting it wash over you, reveling in the memories it brings to your mind, overjoyed at this momentary pause of exuberance, voice singing out just as loudly as your speakers. I'm sure most of us have been there. I know I have, probably more often than I can really comprehend. There's something powerful about sounds from our past, songs that remind us places we have been, people we were with, the person we were at a different point in time in our lives. Music, certain words, can be transporting, taking us back in time to places and memories we thought we had forgotten. There's such a joy in these moments, when it is nothing but our voices and the wind and the music. It's freeing and it's relaxing and it's powerful.

Easter is a lot like one of those roll-the-windows-down moments. It is the end of a long and trying six weeks in which we haven't really sang with much joy, where it has been cold and stark, where there has been a striking absence of "alleluias" coming from our lips. Then suddenly, as if in a dream, there's Easter morning, bright and shining and exuberant. The music is resounding and uplifting, the wind feels warmer, and the "alleluias" can do nothing but fall over and over again from our lips. Sometimes though, we let this Easter joy slip past us too quickly, just like we sometimes miss that song we love because we're too busy jumping to the next station to properly listen. We let Easter run through our veins for a few passing moments and then it fades, and all that joy and excitement doesn't fill us the way it should. We think so much about how we should sink into the Lenten season, how we should focus and pray and be penitent, but then when it's over we don't think about the fact that Easter requires just as much, if not more, attention and joy. Easter isn't just a day or a few hours of the early morning, Easter is a season. Easter should be sunk into just as much as Lent. It should be shouted from the rooftops. We should be ready and willing to roll down our windows and shout "alleluias" for the whole world to hear, because what better news is there to proclaim than, "JESUS IS RISEN!"? Lent, and its darkness and weight, has disappeared, and light is shining down upon an empty tomb that brings with it the promise of resurrection and eternal life. Now that is something worth getting excited about! I know it happens every year, and the message is the same, but just think about it, that song you hear on the radio - you'll probably hear it again, and will your joy be any less? No, it will be the same, filled with rolled-down-window joy. So why not treat Easter the same? Why not let Easter fill you to bursting with shouts of "alleluia" and "He is risen!"? Why not roll your windows down and feel the wind on your face, remembering the Holy Spirit moving throughout creation and bringing amazing joy into the world? Why not get excited about how amazing our God is, how powerful the promise of eternal life is, how wild the promise of resurrection is?

My hope and prayer for all of us this Easter season is that on Easter morning, when we first let "alleluia" ring out around our sanctuary, we feel at once at peace and full of joy. I pray that we let that word fill us, and the promises it represents nestle into our hearts and warm them with the light of Christ our Risen Lord. I pray that you go home and want to do nothing but roll down the windows of your car and shout, "ALLELUIA! HE IS RISEN!" And maybe, just maybe, someone will respond from their joy-filled hearts, "HE IS RISEN INDEED!"

Peace it Together,
Pastor Tina

Maundy Thursday Seder: We Honor, We Remember, We Celebrate

Please join us on Thursday, April 2 at 6:00 p.m. as we gather as a community to celebrate an ancient tradition of a Seder meal. We will remember the heritage of our Jewish brothers and sisters in the retelling of the ancient Passover story, and we will reflect and celebrate Jesus' final Passover meal with his disciples in the closing hours of his life. Come to learn, to celebrate, to spend time with your brothers and sisters in Christ as we prepare for the celebration of Easter Sunday.

Making "Sense" of Good Friday

The story of Good Friday is an intense one. It is a story filled with deep pain and even deeper emotion. It is a story that when truly felt sinks into our souls and leaves us forever changed. Yet, sometimes, Good Friday can feel confusing and jarring. We invite you to join us on Friday, April 3 at 7:00 p.m. for a different kind of Good Friday service, a service that will seek to help us walk in Christ's footsteps through his final hours, and to kneel at the foot of the cross in recognition for the love he bore for us. From 7:00-7:30 p.m., there will be an open time of reflective prayer, centered around different "sense" stations placed throughout the sanctuary. Experience the taste, smell, feel, touch, and sight of Good Friday. Pray through the stations, pray from your heart, and experience this journey Christ took for us all. From 7:30 p.m. on, we will have a condensed, traditional Good Friday liturgy, bringing us from the darkness of the cross to the hope of the light of Easter Sunday.

Easter Sunday Worship Schedule

*Sunrise Service: 6:30 a.m. at Red Lion Cemetery, followed by light refreshments in the Welcome Center

*Spirit Cellar: 9:00 a.m.

*Traditional Service: 10:45 a.m.

News

Church Council met Thursday, March 12. The topics discussed from the committee reports were:

Easter Sunday Sunrise service will take place at the Red Lion Cemetery at 6:30 a.m. with regular service times following.

There is a possibility of a Family Fitness program being started. We will keep you informed.

We discussed the Visioning process within the committees for 1-, 3-, and 5-year goals.

TOGS would like to plan a Pancake Breakfast fundraiser sometime in May. Of course, adult help will be needed. If you are interested in helping, please see the Pastor.

Concerning the New PA Care/Protection Laws, those who have clearances from other organizations will be accepted and Tom Kerr has offered to assist with fingerprinting.

The Bishop will be at Grace on December 13 to lead both services and Sunday School.

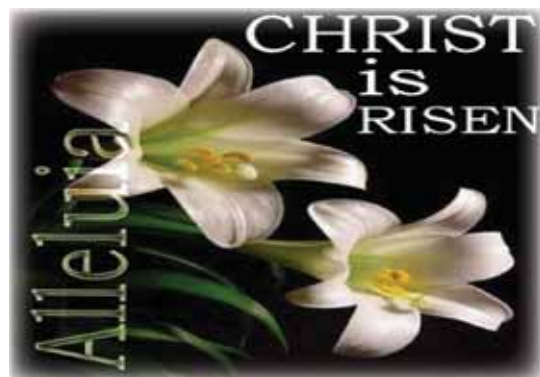

The Finance Committee met with representatives from Merrill Lynch Investments for ongoing information in their search for a possible investment partner.

A discussion on our safety issues related to insurance requirements yielded a need for a congregational meeting. Council will be seeking approval for a contract to replace our North Charles Street sidewalk.

The Property Committee solicited four bids to replace the sidewalk and sent their recommendation to council.

Stairway railing to the church library has been installed. Our community outreach of hosting the local AA Chapter meeting is in peril due to insurance issues and may have to discontinue. The roof over the North Charles Street entrance has been repaired.

Council still needs representation on the IT and Worship and Music committees.

STRANGERS IN KENYA

Asher—our middle child—is quite the kid. He wears his heart on his sleeve. He’s a no-nonsense kind of guy. He often sees (and says) things with far more clarity and wisdom than his years.

As a mere five-year-old, Asher declared that he never wanted to get married, instead preferring to be like “Uncle Dan,” our forty-something, bachelor neighbor and co-worker. And that opinion has stuck for the last two years, but as Ralph Waldo Emerson said, “A foolish consistency is the hobgoblin of little minds.” Asher’s mind is not a little one.

The topic came up again at dinner this week. He said, “The only reason I do want to get married is so that I can have a cute, chubby little girl like Claire.” Even though he and his sister battle pretty vigorously at times (she sees him as the easiest family member to overtake, apparently), his tenderness and protection towards her is a beautiful thing. At just seven years of age, he has so much love in his heart for her that he foresees the joy of a future fatherhood for a little sweetheart like Claire.

But don’t try to pin him down quite yet. He also said, “But I would like to have a big house all by myself, and I can’t have that if I get a family.”

Stay tuned for further developments.

Ryan

(P.S. Minutes after I wrote this, I had a lunch with Asher where he said, “Daniel is the nicest boy at school because he shares with everyone.” I commented to Asher how wonderful it is that he compliments his friends so frequently. He then told me his philosophy: “Do you know what I tell myself in my head all the time? Only say nice things about other people. Don’t say anything that might be mean.” Oh, that I might be as wise as my seven-year-old!)

Pastoral Acts

Funerals

March 2-Janet Isett passed away on February 26. The funeral was officiated by Pastor Tina and held at the church. Internment is at Pleasant View Church of the Brethren Cemetery.

March 3-Gloria Reider passed away on February 26. The funeral was held at Olewiler and Heffner Funeral Home with Pastor Tina officiating. Internment is at the Craley Cemetery.

BLOOD DRIVE Make Sharing a Life a Part of Yours

Grace Lutheran will have a community blood drive on Saturday, April 4 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the social hall. Every two seconds, someone needs blood. With each blood donation given, you can help save up to three lives. Due to bad weather this winter, a number of blood drives were cancelled and supplies are low right now. Last year during our first blood drive for the Central PA Blood Bank, we collected about 20 units of blood. That was great for our first time, so this year we think we can do even better!

It doesn’t take long. It doesn’t cost anything. The feeling you have after donating is wonderful! If you have any questions or would like to schedule an appointment, see Wendy Mummert or call her at 246-2206.

Donors need to weigh 110 pounds and be 16 years old. 16-year-olds will need a parental consent form, available at the donation site. If you’ve never donated blood before, please consider donating this year.

KID QUESTION

Hi! It’s me again, Natalie Rudolf. This month’s question is... “What is your family tradition for Easter?” This month, I’m going to answer the question as well, so look out for me in this paragraph.

“I go to church, an Easter breakfast, and two Easter egg hunts. Then I go eat dinner/lunch with family.”
- Madison Shaffer

“I go to a breakfast with my grandma, do an Easter egg hunt, and then have dinner.”
- Ally Warntz

“I do an Easter egg hunt with my family and eat dinner/lunch.”
- Carly

“I go to church, go to an Easter breakfast, and two Easter egg hunts. Then go eat dinner/lunch.”
- Johanna Shaffer

“I go to church and then go eat breakfast. We then go on an Easter egg hunt and then pig out on my two Easter baskets. We eat lunch/dinner at the farm, and spend time with my family.”
- Natalie Rudolf

Hope you have a great Easter and thank you for reading this! See you next month!

WHAT'S IN THE DISPLAY CASE?

Mother's Day Plates in April

The display case for April will be Beth Kollosch's collection of Mother's Day plates she has collected from Avon. Pat and Janet encourage church members to show off their collections. If you would like to display your collection, see Janet.

According to about.com, Avon has a list of the most popular and best selling collectibles. In order they are: figurines, dolls, plush products, collector's plates, ornaments, and steins.

Attention Graduates and Their Families

As in the past, we would like to honor our confirmands and those students who have graduated from high school, college or trade school who have gotten their diplomas since June of 2014 or will receive their diplomas in May or June of 2015. We accept all photos, not just graduation ones. Please contact Janet Murphy, Pat Mummert, or Ellen Warntz to fill out an information card and lend us a framed photo (which will be returned) to use in the showcase in May and June. We also honor graduates who are connected to us, but not members of Grace Lutheran. We need photos and information about the graduate no later than May 3.

BOOK CLUB

For April, the book club is reading two short books on the same theme: Dinner with a Perfect Stranger and Lunch with a Perfect Stranger, both by David Gregory. Anyone interested in participating can get a copies of the books from Jennifer Rudolf or Geri Jacobs.

The next meeting is on April 16, at 6:30 p.m. (third Thursday of every month).

Here is a description of the book, according to amazon.com: 'Businessman Nick Cominsky receives a mysterious envelope among his mail, inviting him to a dinner with Jesus of Nazareth. The normally confident, cynical Nick soon finds himself thrown off-balance, drawn into an intriguing conversation with a baffling man who comfortably discusses everything from world religions to the existence of heaven and hell. As the evening progresses, their conversation touches on life, God, meaning, pain, faith, and doubt—and it seems that having Dinner with a Perfect Stranger may change Nick's life forever.'

A Day with a Perfect Stranger is another book in the series. This is the story of Nick's wife spending the day with Jesus during a business trip.

Grief Support Group April Date Change

The Grief Support Group will meet April 12 this month, instead of the usual first Sunday, due to Easter.

GRACEFUL WOMEN

Graceful Women will meet on Thursday, April 9 at 7:00 p.m. in the Welcome Center. The program, "What Men Don't Know About Women," will be presented by Dr. Greg Murphy. As always, everyone is invited to the meeting. We meet in the Welcome Center.

GET TO KNOW YOUR COUNCIL OFFICERS

Joe Turek: Vice President

Joe Turek is the current Vice President of council. This is his third year of his first term on council.

Joe and his wife, Priscilla, have been married for 27 years. They have three boys: 22-year-old twins Mike and Joe, and 17-year-old Mark. Mike and Joe are both seniors at Penn State, majoring in mechanical engineering. They have a fascination for cars and a passion for Mustangs. Mark is a junior at Dallastown Area High School. He enjoys baseball and runs the 330 intermediate hurdles for the varsity track team.

Outside of church, unless there is snow on the ground, Joe said it is not uncommon to see him at a baseball field. "I have been a coach for the past 17 years and active with umpiring for the last six years," he said. "Our family has a passion for the outdoors and a love of the game of baseball."

The Tureks have been members of Grace for about seven years. Joe decided to join council to make a difference.

"At Grace we have been blessed with the ability to provide back to the community," said Joe. "I hope that by being on council, we have supported some of our great ministries and expanded into other areas to continue to spread the word of the Lord."

LUTHERAN CAMPING CORPORATION NEWS

Summer Camps: Discounts until April 4

Registration forms are available on the office counter. Six different discounts are available, including a $10 one for sure. Another $15 discount is applied if cost is paid in full by April 4. Four additional coupons are available. For more information on any of the events listed below, or to register, go to lutherancamping.org or call (717) 677-8211.

Which summer camp is right for you?

Summer Youth Camp at Kirchenwald and Nawakwa: All camp programs include games, swimming, campfires, Bible study, crafts, songs, Christ-centered worship, nature activities, and well-trained counselors who care.

Family Camp at Kirchenwald: Camp Kirchenwald proudly presents the family vacation everyone can enjoy! Celebrate your family in this unique camp experience.

Family Camp at Nawakwa: For two weeks each summer, family units move into Nawakwa's cabins and lodges to create a unique community.

Elder Camp at Nawakwa: This week is designed for adults 55 and older. It runs alongside, and sometime runs circles around, our youth camp from Sunday – Saturday.

Adult B.Y.O.C. Week at Kirchenwald: Thoreau had Walden Pond for retreat and inspiration. Georgia O'Keefe has the New Mexican desert. Now you have Camp Kirchenwald for Bring Your Own Craft Week.

Summer Day Program at The Wittel Farm: Your group's assignment, should you choose to accept it (and you most definitely should!) is to report to The Wittel Farm for a day this summer to take on Exploration of God's Creation.

Diaconos Program at Kirchenwald: The Diaconos program at Kirchenwald is designed for youth groups to custom-plan a week filled with a combination of service opportunities and adventure outings. With the Diaconos staff, you can schedule a week that perfectly fits the needs and abilities of your group.

HOW TO SUBMIT TO THE NEWSLETTER

We welcome all submissions to the newsletter. The newsletter is a great place to ask for help, publicize an event you are planning in the church, tell people about something you or your family is doing, thank members, celebrate a victory. The possibilities are endless! The vision for the newsletter is to communicate between members in a clear and interesting format. If you would like to submit to the newsletter or help in any way, here is what you can do:

*If you are comfortable with computers, you may email Jamie Koons at: jamieleekoons@gmail.com. Please make sure your document is either a .doc or .pdf file. If you are including digital artwork, make sure it is at least 300KB in size.

*If you prefer paper, just drop off your submission in the mailbox marked 'newsletter' outside the office door. The mailboxes are located on a table across the hall.

Please keep in mind that the deadline for submission is the 20th of each month for the following month's newsletter. If you have pictures or graphics that complement your submission, include them along with directions or suggestions on their use. Please include your contact information in every submission so the editor can get in touch to clarify or fact-check. If you are interested in a monthly submission or article, we welcome that as well.

HAPPENINGS IN OUR CHURCH FAMILY Thank you letters

Dear members of Grace Lutheran,

You forever amaze me with your thoughtfulness and generosity toward so many people who experience challenges. I want to express gratitude for being so good to the Malu-Malu family. What a blessing it was to be able to bring them to the Wednesday night meal and Lenten service. It is so good for them to have a connection to your church...mostly for the spiritual support. That's so good for them. God bless you in all that you do!

Sincerely,

Tammy Grove

Dear Pastor and members of Grace Lutheran Church,

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

Asante sana (thank you) for your companionship in the Gospel with your sister congregation, Isuba Parish, in Tanzania. I hope this relationship helps strengthen and enrich your faith and witness even as it supports and encourages theirs.

Asante sana for your recent gift of $441.33 to your companion congregation. Your gift was wired to the Konde Diocese on January 28, 2015. We have notified both the Diocese and Isuba Parish that your gift has been sent.

Please continue to keep Bishop Israel-Peter Mwakyokile, the Diocese, and your companion congregation in your prayers. Please write to them often, telling them of the joys and challenges of your ministry. They also enjoy pictures of your congregation.

May God richly bless your ministry and fill your lives with joy and peace of our Risen Lord Jesus.

In Christ,

The Rev. Sharron R. Blezard
Assistant to the Bishop
Lower Susquehanna Synod, ELCA

SPRING CLEAN-UP!

Just when you thought we were done with the cleaning at church, it is spring and we start all over again. We will assemble on Saturday, May 2 at 9:00 a.m. to gather the debris from winter that has landed in our front lawn. We will get the flowerbeds clean and ready for blooming, we might spread mulch where needed, and of course, we will clean the kitchen and all of its equipment and appliances. Hopefully, with this early warning, you will be able to save the date for volunteering here at Grace and helping to present a glowing appearance for all who pass by our church.

COMMUNITY YARD SALE

Mark your calendars now for the community yard sale, which will be held on June 19 and 20. As most of you know, we rent spaces on our lawn to vendors and we sell our famous hamburgs in sauce and grilled hot dogs to the hordes that arrive at our food stand. The money raised by this event is used for special needs within the church, such as a printer for the treasurer's office and new, safe ladders to replace the fifty-year-old ones that were being used. We do need volunteers to help man the food stand so if spending some time under the portico, visiting with people, serving food, and having a wonderful time appeal to you, mark your calendar now and tell Jack Warntz of your interest in helping.

T.O.G.S. NEWS

Upcoming Events

*Sunday, April 26: Noon-3:00ish—The TOGS will be going to the Sky Zone in Lancaster. The cost to go is $16 per person for an hour of “jump time.” If you and your youth are attending, please see Pastor Tina for a waiver to fill out before we leave for the event.

*Sunday, May 2 (the date is tentative): We are planning a pancake breakfast fundraiser. We will have more details will be announced as we begin to plan.

MUG CLUB!

The mug club meets the last Thursday of the month at 6:30 p.m. Next month’s meeting is at the Black Cap Brewery on April 30. At our March meeting, we talked about how the media is portraying religion with an emphasis on fanatics. This led to a topic about judgement in general and how humanity judges itself. We also discussed the recent Supreme Court Hearings about religious freedom and how it is playing out in Pennsylvania. The topics vary greatly from month to month, but one thing is constant; good conversation!
